

Fulbright Leaders for Global Schools Travel Grantee Biographies

Tarja Mykrä

Director of Development Ms. Tarja Mykrä has a versatile experience in the field of education. In MERCURIA Business College she was in charge of implementing the revised vocational education legislation for her school during 2017-2018. She is also a vocational teacher and a specialist in coaching, mentoring, student-centered teaching methods, vocational education and work-based learning. Ms. Mykrä has several publications in the field of her specialist areas. She has experience of international training programs in Jordan and Uganda, and she spent fall 2015 as a Fulbright scholar in Indiana University, US.

Anne-Marie Rapo

Anne-Marie Rapo is currently working as the Principal of an international, comprehensive English-language school in Finland. Earlier in her career, she worked as a teacher, an education planner and mentor teacher. She is a popular presenter on Finnish education. Ms Rapo holds a Master of Arts degree in modern languages from the University of Helsinki, Finland.

Pasi Rangell

Pasi Rangell is currently the principal of Seminaari School in Hämeenlinna, Finland. The school is very diverse offering versatile programs for mainstream students and special needs students with three different kind of programs (mild learning / behavior problems, disabled students and autistic program). Pasi has worked as a principal in Finland, Estonia and Arab Emirates and is also an experienced lecturer. Gifted & Talented students and Team Organization – Leading by Trust are topics of special interest to him. He holds a Master's degree in Education from Tampere University (1995).